

The University of Oklahoma

2 Interior Design Positions for August 2010

Candidates for both positions must have a professional degree in Interior Design or Architecture, be licensed or registered as an Interior Designer in their home state, and have at least a Master's degree.

Interim Director for Division of Interior Design

Candidates may also apply for the permanent position during a national search in Fall 2010 or Spring 2011. Five years practice experience also required.

Assistant Visiting Professor

Teach basic, first year design studios, and history of interior design classes. Three years practice experience also required.

Applications including a letter of interest, a current vitae, portfolio of professional and/or student work, and the names and contact information of three references should be sent before end of business on July 16, 2010 to: Chair, Faculty Search Committee, Division of Interior Design, College of Architecture, 830 Van Vleet Oval, Rm. 162, Norman, OK 73019-6141, Phone 405-325-5693, cwgraham@ou.edu.

The University of Oklahoma is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer and encourages diversity in the workplace.