membership drive, october.09

congrats girls, and we all want to know, "what does IIDA mean to you?"

leslie pemberton, professional member "IIDA means being able to support my Interior Design Profession; to contribute, expand, learn, and grow within my industry and with other like-minded professionals. I'm so honored to have been awarded this opportunity."

erin rinehardt, associate member
 "When I first joined IIDA, I was looking for a well respected design organization that could help me continue my professional development. After becoming actively involved, what I found was even more valuable. IIDA is about being part of a larger community. A community of friends and colleagues that celebrate successes with each other, but more importantly, support each other during tough times. These relationships are invaluable to me as I continue to grow in my new profession."

7th Annual Fashion Show entries are still being accepted through February 26th...contact Leslie Pemberton for more info, Leslie@interior-designers.ws . (and check out our Flickr account for pics from last year's event!)
